

Yvon Fragnière

Born on September 5, 1996, in Switzerland Yvon discovered and learn alone the bases of diabolo and unicycle at a very young age. From 2004 to 2014 Yvon train in different circus school like Fun'en'Bulle, Arabas Circus and Cirque-en-Ciel where he had a long story. He chooses juggling and acrobatic as principal discipline; fire breathing came a bit later.

In 2015 started kind of a two years break with training so he could focus on the achievement of his apprenticeship as office worker, his travel in Australia and his military Service as a hospital soldier. Joke on him, He finish sergeant. During these two years he had the opportunity to perform for different festival like the Festival Local, Balalec Festival or for the medieval festival in Montagny-les-Monts. He even performs during in Military Service.

End of 2017 Yvon go back to the circus school Cirque-en-Ciel but as teacher this time. Next to teaching he had the opportunity to work as technician for The Kunos Circus Theater. He tries his first audition to join a professional circus school but didn't get in. In 2018 he chose to follow his dream of circus, by taking new lessons at The Zarti'Cirque in St-Croix. End of December he performs for the Winter Cabaret of Kunos Circus Theater.

In 2019 Yvon move to Berlin to study in Die Etage. There he is working on Juggling, who remains is main discipline. His second discipline is hands to hands as flyer. With his Partner they also working on what they call Acro-Juggling. During his study he did Stage manager for Die etage Werkstatt and rigging man for the graduation show 2020. Beside his study in die Etage Yvon perform in various places and also started to train flying trapeze. He Graduated in October 2022. He now performs as a juggler and acrobat in different gigs, mainly in Berlin but not only.

In 2023 Yvon went for two month in Forsvik, Sweden, working with Smofa on "Kling – A life for Ice-cream. First Rockabilly Musical in Sweden mixing circus to the genre.

In 2024 Yvon Created What The (H)ELLE. A show with 6 Artist mixing traditional and contemporary circus with a touch of theatre. the Premiere of What The (H)ELLE was performed on the 31. Mai 2024. During the Summer Yvon work again with Smofa on their new show " SOT – GJUTROCK". During that years started also a collaboration with the company Omnivolant with a Corean Cradle Duo.